

www.coolscotland.org.uk

COOL is a Recognised Scottish Charity (No. SC031455)
and a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation

Job Advert for COOL

YOUTH AND SCHOOLS WORKER

Salary: £21, 000 to £25, 000

Christian Outlook on Lochalsh (COOL) is registered in Scotland as a charity (SC031455) and also a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation, focusing on the young people resident in the Lochalsh, South Skye, Lochcarron, Applecross and Glenelg areas of North West Scotland. Our aim is to reach out to young people with the Gospel through providing pastoral and support care within schools as well as additional social, recreational and spiritual opportunities for them. Our work is among young people in schools, holiday events, residential events and churches.

The Trust is seeking to appoint someone, ideally with schools ministry experience, to this established work. The position will be one of working to develop and deliver an effective Christian ministry in the catchment area of Plockton High School and its associated primaries.

It is important that you are committed to COOL's ethos, working principles and vision and would demonstrate this through your commitment and motivation. It is also an Occupational Requirement that the post-holder demonstrates a personal faith in Jesus Christ. It is a job requirement to be vetted under the SU Scotland Child Protection policy, which includes being subject to a PVG check.

For an application pack and further information about COOL please visit our website at:

www.coolscotland.org.uk

or contact Christine Matheson at christine@coolscotland.org.uk

The closing date for applications is Saturday 16th December 2017.

Interviews will take place during January 2018.

for more information on the work and history of COOL please visit www.coolscotland.org.uk