

Director of Ministry

acting as chief of operations

This is an exciting opportunity to be at the heart of forming, developing and implementing the church's strategy.

Christ Church Fulwood has been designated a resource church in Sheffield Diocese and through the ReNew South Yorkshire network of churches, is attempting to change the spiritual temperature of the region.

The next Director of Ministry will:

- be theologically astute
- have a positive demeanour
- be excellent with people
- be able to implement agreed plans and strategies
