

MISSIONARY VACANCIES

PASSION FOR LONDON, PASSION FOR THE LEAST-REACHED

For over 180 years the London City Mission has shared the love of God with London's least-reached.

We are currently seeking applications for City Missionaries to join our team with a start date in March 2019.

Our City Missionaries come from varied backgrounds, but all share an extraordinary dedication to urban evangelism, loving London through gospel outreach ministry. They are passionately committed to serving Jesus Christ by going to those who are beyond the reach of most churches, especially where there are social, personal or economic needs, devoting time to patient and personal evangelism.

If you share our passion for reaching out to the least-reached communities across London – those living in poverty, on the margins or from different ethnic groups – and have an unwavering commitment to urban ministry, then we would like to hear from you.
